

2017-2018 AMMOMIA REFRIGERATION TRAINING DAYS

The Central Valley's Premier Ammonia Refrigeration Training

Come join us for a full day of hands-on ammonia refrigeration training. This year's training courses will provide a variety of hands-on workshops as well as presentations on some of the most important topics in our industry.

Due to the success of past events, we have added an additional training day to our schedule. Make sure to quickly RSVP, as class sizes will be limited to 80 attendees per day.
